

BILLY MOYER

BE THE BOSS OF YOUR LIFE™

"Billy literally gave the greatest speech I have ever seen! I was so fired up after that I couldn't stop talking about it!" - Joseph Mandy

Presentation Topics

Be the BOSS of Your Life

Everyone has a boss, many people have multiple bosses. But YOU are your most important Boss. You must hold yourself accountable and embrace change as it comes. You should take control of your life and take Personal Responsibility for your actions, avoid playing the blame game and BOSS yourself around in order to achieve your goals.

In this presentation, Billy will share key stats on why people are Barely Surviving along with four Know Factor to Be the Boss. He will share his personal story that will take people through numerous emotions. He will motivate people to step up as leaders, work to become the best version of themselves and to decide today to be their own BOSS and to THRIVE rather than Barely Survive.

Leadership Makes ALL the Difference

Leadership is the solution to every problem. What would the productivity of your organization look like if every employee stepped up as leaders? Billy will show how you and your organization can gain traction, through fundamental leadership success strategies, in order to answer the call to leadership and achieve peak performance.

If You Don't Grow, You Go!

How do you create a positive organizational culture? This presentation emphasizes the importance of investing in the growth of all employees and in those employees investing in themselves. If you improve the culture, you will improve results.

Leading through the Great Divide

Generational differences have become a hot topic and rightfully so. Gen Y, X and Baby Boomers have some real difference. When talking about generational differences people usually either bring in a Millennial or a Baby Boomer. This presentation is unique because it is simply a conversation between a Millennial (Billy) and a Baby Boomer (Bill Moyer) about their differences and how they are able to work together to multiply results.

Other

Billy also can present on Goal Setting, Time Management and other professional development topics. Billy's program are always customized for the audience and client.
